

INTERNATIONAL MASTERS DEGREE PROGRAMME ON EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS AND RESPONSE

PURPOSE

to educate managers, specialists of structural divisions of nuclear installations (e.g. NPP), and other experts responsible for planning of emergency arrangements, ensuring readiness, decision making or implementation of actions to protect personnel, emergency workers and the public in the event of a nuclear emergency

TYPE OF STUDY

Full-time

LANGUAGE

English

ADDITIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

- Visa support
- Exchange programmes and internships
- Flexibility in learning and choosing courses
- The IAEA Marie Sklodowska-Curie Fellowship Programme

NUMBER OF STUDENTS

Up to 20

DURATION OF STUDIES

2 years

MAIN COURSES

- Concepts of radiation and radiation protection
- Introduction to EPR. General requirements for EPR
- Functional requirements for EPR
- Infrastructure for EPR

TUITION FEE*

380 000 RUB/ academic year

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

- Bachelor's or specialist's degree diploma/certificate with the list of grades;
- Applicant's CV;
- Level of English proficiency B1;
- Entrance-test in a relevant field of studies;
- Interview with a programme coordinator.

* State-funded places are limited and allocated on a competitive basis

 Official language certificates are not required. In case you have a language certificate, you can submit it with the other application documents.

Partners

- IAEA
- Rosatom Technical Academy
- Rosatom Emergency Response Centre
- Leningrad NPP
- International Partner Universities

Application deadlines

- July 01, 2021 – for applicants from countries with visa regime
- September 01, 2021 – for applicants from visa-free countries

Start of the academic year
September 01, 2021

For more details visit
<https://english.spbstu.ru/education/admissions/>

SPbPU

Address: Russia, 195251,
St.Petersburg,
Polytechnicheskaya, 29

Tel: +7 (812) 606 62 41

E-mail: interstudy@spbstu.ru

Web-site

<https://english.spbstu.ru/>

Contact point

Mr Anton BYZOV

Tel. +7(812) 552-98-24

E-mail: byzov_ap@spbstu.ru

